

Present in some 40 nations worldwide, the Roullier Group is an independent, family-based industrial group which has been pursuing an ambitious development policy for the past 50 years. Its 6300-strong workforce is fully committed to its growth - characterised by total sales worth €2 billion in 2008.

Specialising in plant, animal and human nutrition, the success of the Roullier Group is based on its capacity for innovation and above all, on the human dimension of this adventure which brings together women and men united by a single purpose: fulfilling their entrepreneurial ambitions within a highly-motivated multinational!

Job Description:

General Management

Mission

Our directors and managers, who are key players in our future successes, are first and foremost entrepreneurs and builders!

They take on top responsibilities to assist the Group's growth in its strategic business lines in France and internationally.

Our directors and managers have the opportunity to play a part in missions such as the following:

- deployment of business strategies in sectors which have been identified as avenues for growth,
- general management of one of our companies,
- management of one or more overseas subsidiaries.

Key advantages

In order to anticipate the future, our Group is strengthening its management resources and implementing an ambitious training and managerial development programme.

Our opportunities

- General Manager
- Country Manager
- Area General Manager, etc.

Profiles sought

Our directors and managers have an excellent level of education and significant experience, a keen entrepreneurial spirit and genuine management and administrative abilities.

 Required training: Graduate Business or Engineering Schools, etc.

 Significant relevant experience

Applications

Submit your application directly online at www.roullier.com or send your file to:

Groupe Roullier
Direction des Ressources Humaines
27, avenue Franklin Roosevelt
35408 Saint-Malo cedex