

Present in some 40 nations worldwide, the Roullier Group is an independent, family-based industrial group which has been pursuing an ambitious development policy for the past 50 years. Its 6300-strong workforce is fully committed to its growth - characterised by total sales worth €2 billion in 2008.

Specialising in plant, animal and human nutrition, the success of the Roullier Group is based on its capacity for innovation and above all, on the human dimension of this adventure which brings together women and men united by a single purpose: fulfilling their entrepreneurial ambitions within a highly-motivated multinational!

Job Description:

Industrial Management

Mission

Our directors and managers take on operational or general responsibilities on our different production sites, mainly in heavy or process industry. According to their experience and skills, they manage large production teams or coordinate an industrial management mission of international scope.

Key advantages

Our Group is constantly striving for industrial excellence, and is committed to an investment programme to modernise its plant and strengthen its industrial organisation.

Our opportunities

- Industrial Director
- Plant Manager, etc.

Profiles sought

Our directors and managers are experienced engineers who are assessed on the basis of their initial industrial achievements. Above all, they possess a strong personality and an entrepreneurial spirit, enabling them to aspire to top level-managerial responsibilities.

✓ Required training: Engineering Schools (Polytechnique, Centrale, Arts et Métiers Schools, etc.)

✓ Experience: At least 10 years in heavy or chemicals industry

Applications

Submit your application directly online at www.roullier.com or send your file to:

Groupe Roullier
Direction des Ressources Humaines
27, avenue Franklin Roosevelt
35408 Saint-Malo cedex